

WORKER PREYED ON YOUNG GIRLS

A 32 year old theme park worker has been accused of indecently assaulting youngsters at the park over a three year period.

Home care assistant regularly stole from the elderly

Allegations span 10 years

A part time home care assistant pleaded guilty at Guildford Magistrates Court following a six month period of allegations that led into the theft of property and money from the homes of elderly people living in the area.

Company accountant 'cooked books' to support drug habit

A 'respected' company accountant admitted stealing from his clients to support his drug habit. The married father of three faced charges going back as far as 1985 when he was working in London for a firm of Financial Services.

The CRB can help you make safer recruitment decisions

www.crb.gov.uk
0870 90 90 811